Sample Decision Matrix Prioritizing Risks and Opportunities

| | CRITERIA | | | | | |
|--|-----------------------------|---------------------|----------------|----------------------|------------------------|--|
| RISKS/OPP | Time Horizon Affected | Financial Impact | Mission Impact | Degree of Control | Likelihood to Occur | |
| Partner for advocacy | | | | | | |
| Increased demand for existing services | | | | | | |
| New program focused on immigrants | | | | | | |
| Key gov't contract not renewed | | | | | | |

The Scenario Planning Process

- Identify the team to ensure diverse perspectives from all levels of your organization
- 2. Define the scenarios to articulate the risks, issues or opportunities in question
- 3. Gather key financial data on revenue, expenses, cash reserve, etc.
- 4. Isolate the financial drivers and levers that result in change
- 5. Develop the base case and scenarios
 - Articulate the assumptions you are making within each scenario
 - Assess scenarios to identify headlines, trends and insights
- 6. Create an actionable plan with timeline, benchmarks, actions and clear objectives/priorities
- 7. Revisit the scenarios and actionable plan as needed

Types of Scenario Plans

- Best/Worst Case Budgets: "What if's" of one budget year
- Go/No-Go Analysis: Cost-benefit of a strategic decision
- Detailed Multi-Year Scenario Plan: Quantifies the effects of choices/events over time and reveals important inflection points, trends or financial drivers
- Back of Envelope/High Level Analysis: For lowstakes decisions or to gauge general financial impact; easier to do but may be inaccurate

Thinking Through Financial Levers of Change

| Budget Levers | Balance Sheet Levers | | |
|---|---|--|--|
| Expenses: What is within your control? What's easier or harder to change? What most affects outcomes? | Cash & Reserves: Under what circumstances should you access reserves? Are they Board Designated? | | |
| Revenue: What new opportunities can be pursued? Can earned income fees be adjusted? Are there funders who can release funding earlier? Can you hold a special fundraiser? | Cash flow: What is the timing of your cash? Should you look into a line of credit? Can you renegotiate repayment terms with vendors? | | |
| Profitability: What is our goal? Can we absorb a deficit or MUST we at least break even? | Capital expenditures: Can you accelerate or delay any facility projects, if necessary? | | |

Conducting the Go/ No-Go Analysis

- High-level Cost vs Benefit Analysis Create a model to determine the projected costs (expenses) and benefits (revenue) of the Go option.
- Considerations
 - Non-financial benefits (mission/impact goals)
 - Validity of assumptions in costs and benefits
 - Completion risk for new projects or facility projects
 - Liquidity risk for property ownership

Creating an Actionable Plan

Create an actionable plan to help determine what decisions you will make, when, and how, including:

- Clear objectives/priorities
- Roles and responsibilities
- Timeline & benchmarks
- Adjustments in spending, revenue strategies or other financial strategies
- Other actions needed to achieve objectives

The following questions may be useful in creating a plan:

- What are immediate, concrete next steps?
- Who is charged with executing the plan and what decisions need to be made?
- What triggers will lead to Plan B, Plan C, etc.?
- What is the communication strategy?

WORKSHEET: Steps for Scenario Planning

- 1. Identify the team: Ensure diverse perspectives from all levels of your organization.
- 2. Define the scenario: With your team, define the question, event or risk that the scenario is exploring? Define the scope and depth of your analysis.
- Gather key financial data: How will revenue and expenses be affected? By how much? Will there be one-time and/or ongoing costs? What revenue or expense are tied to each other or drive changes across the board, for ex., ? Will you need to use cash reserve, debt or other balance sheet resources?
- 4. Isolate the financial drivers and levers that result in change
- Develop a baseline or base case: What is most likely financial picture without the scenario? This might be a single or multi-year budget. Make note of the assumptions you are making to build this base case. For example, which funders are you assuming will continue to support you in the future? Are you assuming a flat budget or growth? What programs will you be running? How are costs escalating over time? It's a good idea to make conservative assumptions and test them with others.

Develop scenarios, including financial adjustments: How will the financial picture change from your "Base Case" if the event, risk or opportunity takes place? Budget line by budget line, make your best educated guess on how revenue, expenses and balance sheet will be affected. Document your assumptions and your confidence level with those assumptions. It's a good idea to make conservative assumptions and test them with others.

Assess the scenarios: Compare your base case with your scenarios. Articulate the headlines, major trends and insights. Note important events, decision points or risks. Complex models may benefit from a narrative or graphs.

- Create an actionable plan for each case: Develop a realistic plan that defines financial objectives, actions, timeframes and benchmarks. Assign responsibilities and decision rights.
- 7. Revisit the scenario plan as needed: Monitor key risks and opportunities and adjust your plan as needed.
