

About Alice Antonelli

Short

Alice Antonelli leads consulting initiatives, service delivery and product development, cultivates and manages client relationships, and teaches workshops and seminars. Alice initially joined NFF as part of the lending team and was responsible for business development and underwriting loans. Prior to joining NFF in 2002, she worked at JPMorgan Chase as Vice President for the Community Development Corporation. She currently serves on the Advisory Committee of the National Fund for Sacred Places, and previously served as a member of the Not-for-Profit Advisory Committee of the Financial Accounting Standards Board, and Chair of the Audit Committee of Philanthropy Network Greater Philadelphia. In addition, she also served as a grant panelist for both Pennsylvania Council on the Arts and New Jersey State Council on the Arts, faculty of the NeighborWorks America Training Institute, and a certified instructor for the Pennsylvania Quality Assurance System. Alice earned a Master of Business Administration from The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and a Bachelor of Science from St. Lawrence University.

Long

Alice joined NFF in 2002, and is responsible for leading consulting initiatives, playing a lead role in delivery and product development; cultivating and managing client relationships; and teaching workshops and seminars. Early in her tenure, Alice was also a part of the NFF lending team, responsible for business development and underwriting loans. Prior to NFF, she worked at JPMorgan Chase as VP for the Community Development Corporation.

She currently serves on the Advisory Committee of the National Fund for Sacred Places, and in the recent past served as a member of the Not-for-Profit Advisory Committee of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB), Chair of the Audit Committee of Philanthropy Network Greater Philadelphia, and a member of the Arcadia University Career Advisory Board.

She previously served as a member of the Portfolio Advisory Group of the Greater Philadelphia Cultural Alliance, in the capacity of grant panelist for both the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts and the New Jersey State Council on the Arts, as guest lecturer at the University of Pennsylvania and Drexel University, and faculty for the NeighborWorks America Training Institute.

She is also very active in her community having served as a member of the boards of Narberth Presbyterian Church and the First Presbyterian Church Greenwich Nursery School, and volunteering as a fundraiser for Amnion Pregnancy Center, Alzheimer's Association, City Harvest, Habitat for Humanity and Build On.

Alice earned an MBA from The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, and a BS from St. Lawrence University, and was a PQAS-certified instructor for early childhood education organizations (under the Pennsylvania Quality Assurance System).